INDEMNITY

I, the undersigned, being the owner/master of the vessel named overleaf, do indemnify the owners and publishers of Motor Boats Monthly and all its servants against any claim arising out of myself, my crew, and my craft participating in MBM Cruising Club events and voluntarily accept any risk of injury or damage. I undertake to carry a valid certificate of boat insurance covering third-party liabilities for these events, along with full safety and emergency equipment in working order as prescribed by Motor Boats Monthly. I understand that such items may be inspected by the magazine's representative, and that it is MBM Cruising Club policy that lifejackets should be worn at all times when underway.

I accept that the appointed Motor Boats Monthly representative has the right, without refund, to exclude a boat from this event should it not comply with these conditions. I also accept that the event may be cancelled, curtailed, or the programme modified, should weather or other conditions make the venture unsafe or not otherwise viable in the opinion of the magazine's representative.

I have read and understood this indemnity.
