

After a fantastic Channel crossing and a stop in Cherbourg the fleet arrive in St Vaast

Moored on the tranquil canal at Carentan

Normandy shakedown

Our first 2008 cruise kicked off in near-perfect conditions, so our small flotilla experienced a fantastic inaugural trip across the Channel

A quick briefing before departing for St Vaast

The fleet leave Carentan and head across the Channel before the weather turns

The head of the canal at Carentan with the town behind

